

5 WENTWORTH CHAMBERS invites you to the 2022 Employment Law CPD Programme

Five presentations on substantive law for employment law practitioners

In person* and online

All sessions are free
12.00-6.00pm

Thursday, 17 March 2022

NSW Bar Dispute Resolution Centre
Level 1, 174 Phillip Street SYDNEY

Presenters:

David Chin SC
Elizabeth Raper SC
Christopher Parkin
Catherine Bembrick
Dan Fuller
Anna Spies
Eliot Olivier
Miles Foran
Alexander Vial

RSVP by 1 March (in-person) or 16 March (for Zoom invitations)

Subject to prevailing public health restrictions*

About our speakers ...

5 Wentworth is a modern and diverse barristers' chambers with a breadth of talent in employment, industrial and work health and safety law. The floor's employment practice is headed up by David Chin SC and Elizabeth Raper SC (both ranked for their employment work in Doyle's Guide and Chambers & Partners) and supported by junior counsel at all levels. Our barristers are regularly briefed by major corporations, government departments, regulators, trade unions and individual employees in all jurisdictions.

Please contact Sarah Tiffen, clerk, with any questions at clerk@5wentworth.com

RSVP 1 March 2022 (in-person) or 16 March (for Zoom invitations)

This event qualifies for one CPD/CLE point per session (substantive law strand)
in NSW, Victoria and Queensland.